HEARD ON THE STREETS

Sells a Maxwell.

C. H. Stewart who has the agency of the Maxwell and Winton Six, delivered a Maxwell car to Dr. I. D. Turner of Gary this morning.

Groat Gets Off.

The cases of Charles Groat charged with public indecency and Charles Knight for mayhem were dismissed by Judge Barnett this morning on the ground that the complaining witnesses would not appear to fight the cases.

The old saying is that when robin redbreast appears it is almost a sure sign that spring is almost here to stay.

An Exciting Game.

Walter Allee, one of the corps of teachers in the Hammond high school witnessed a game of ice hockey at the ice palace in Chicago last night. Allee is of the opinion that the game is one of the most exciting and interesting that he has ever seen.

Mrs. Pierce Improves.

Mrs. Ralph C. Pierce, 46 Condit street, who underwent an operation at St. Margaret's hospital, was getting along as well as possible today, and the prospects for an early recovery were very bright today. It is probable that her friends may visit her Sunday afternoon or Monday.

AFTER INJUNCTION.

Miss Virginia Brooks will go to Chicago Monday for the purpose of securing an injunction to restrain the village board of West Hammond and the village officials from proceeding with the holding of the coming primary. Miss Brooks says that she sees through the game of the ringsters perfectly. They will proceed with the city election, afterwards have it declared invalid and then make it possible for the present village officials, whom she claims are friends of Markman's to remain in office.

On these grounds she will seek the aid of the courts to restrain the village officials from proceeding with the election. She says that the opinion of Attorney General Stead to the effect that the recent election is invalid is good enough for her.

IN THE SPORTING WORLD

LAKE CO. HOCKEY FAN PRAISES IT

(By Dr. J. C. Graham.)

Let all men and good women who love outdoor sports and who have rich, red blood flowing in their veins hie themselves to the Ice Palace and witness the wonderful demonstrations of ice hockey as played by the C. A. club's seven against All Niagara Falls, on of the good teams in the Ontario Hockey association. If you like to see sturdy young athletes toss a large ball in a basket or knock a small rubber one with a racket don't go, but if you care for a game which combines quick thinking and judgment of baseball with the ruggedness and pugnacity of the prize ring and whose players require the coolness, alertness and nerve of a matador, go to the Ice Palace and watch, if your eyes are sharp enough, these fourteen youngsters, seven from that country to the north where the breath freezes as it leaves the throat, who whirl, dodge, jump, swerve and body check like seven veritable fiends; and seven ex-Canadians who only six months ago introduced to Chicago what the most strenuous game in the world, faster than football and more exciting than a prize fight.

Little is known of hockey as yet in America outside of Pittsburgh and northern Michigan. But from Vancouver to Halifax across the border men and women fairly worship the hockey players as they do the baseball athlete here.

Some fifteen years ago Lord Stanley presented a trophy known as the Stanley cup, to be competed for by teams both intercollegiate and otherwise, and this is the incentive for the most bitter rivalry among the big teams of Montreal, Ottawa and Toronto. In 1904 in a match played between the Wanderers of Montreal and the Capital team of Ottawa Montreal shut out the shops while the game was played, people begged for admission to the arena, which holds 15,000. In this game, which was refereed by an old room mate of mine, Dr. D. H. Kearns of Ottawa, every man on both teams, but one goal tender, Nicholson by name, had been under a surgeon's care. Dr. Kearns was severely criticised all over the country for not penalizing heavy enough.

I predict that in five years the Ice Palace of Chicago, which is one of the finest in the world, not even excepting the Palais de Glace of Paris or the immense arena at Montreal, will not be large enough to hold the crowds which will be pulling for this great game. Once in the blood it's like the passion for gambling—impossible to resist.

The I. A. C. team put up a clean, fast game and though outplayed in the first 35 minutes by their opponents from Canada, showed their longer experience and greater strength by finishing strong and winning by one point.

Far above any of the fourteen shone the one particular star—Mark, the captain of the I. A. C. His rushes, checking and stick-handling were spectacular at all times, and when the band played Yankee Doodle as a signal of victory, Marks was the man who had saved the game for Chicago. All you who love ice sports go and see this splendid ice palace. Not one man in a hundred in the suburbs of Chicago know that right at their very door lies the most magnificent sheet of artificial ice in the world, managed and looked after by the keenest business men in Chicago, who are bound to make winter sports a success.

WALSH IS READY; SCALPS PANTHERS IN PERFECT GAME

White Sox Manager Elated
Over Pitcher's Form in Fort Worth Brush.

Fort Worth, Texas, March 11.—Ed Walsh seems to be ready. Yesterday the big pitcher, handling the front end of a 7 to 2 victory of the white Sox over the Fort Worth panthers, let down the Texans without a hit or a run for three innings. Not a man got to first either, which made it better. Walsh had about as much on the ball yesterday afternoon as he usually has during the heated turn of the pennant race. Everything was grist that came to his mill, right and left handers being all the same. He used speed at times, as much as he consumes any old time. He did not worry the native much with his spitball, as the curves were plenty when occasion required.

The fact that Walsh looks so good right now is a delight to Manager Duffy. "Now had we had Walsh in trim last spring," said the manager after the game, "where would we have been in the race? You might well guess. With Ed in shape when we get home there will be something doing right off the reel. Then the others are also getting into form, and if we stay that way look out for the Sox."

Fancy Frills On Fielding.

The pitching was not the only thing which looked good. The fielding had frills on it, the fast coming Sox getting away without a semblance of an error, and there was some healthy clouting for good measure. Matt McIntyre contributing the most swatting. The ex-tiger hit for a single, double and a triple, which figured considerably in the run getting.

Lord also had his eye with him, getting a single and double. The captain is improving in his playing every day, although he is still bothered with a sore right arm, so there are no snap throws to first.

'SAMPSON' STICKS WITH MAHMOUT IN MAT BOUT

German Champion Holds
Turk to Draw in Thirty Minutes.

With an offer of a match with Champion Frank Gotch if he held his own with Yussif Mahmout for thirty minutes at the Empire last night, "Sampson," the bulky German, stuck right with the big Turk. "Sampson" showing was remarkable, and although on the defense a greater portion of the time, was never in dangerous quarters. Mahmout was unable to accomplish the feat of downing "Sampson." On several occasions he was forced to use all his strength to keep the German from putting over a fall.

The two preliminary events resulted in victories for Carl Ernst over John Stevens and Paul Martins over J. Anderson, both in straight falls.

AUTOMOBILE CLUB TO NAME SEASON EVENTS

Committees Meet Next
Week to Dispose of Cobe
Race.

Plans for the coming season, which promises to be a busy one at the Chicago Automobile Club, both in the way of contests and tours, will be drawn up next week, when the respective committees of the Plymouth court organization hold their session. Calls were sent out yesterday for a meeting of the tours committee on Wednesday, while on Tuesday the board of directors will meet to dispose of a number of things which will have some bearing upon the summer programme. These gatherings will be followed by the contest board meeting.

In the way of contests the club members are already stirred up and anxiously awaiting any action regarding the interclub contests with the Chicago Athletic Association team, and also the disposition of the Cobe trophy race, which was run at Indianapolis last year previous over the Crown Point-Lowell course. Just what action will be taken as regards this big event is a question.

Neither the directors nor the contest board, which will meet shortly, have divulged any information, so it appears as if the entire affair will be thrashed out and settled at the meeting. The most probable date for the race is about the middle of June, but despite the length of time to fix plans the club officers are anxious to reach a definite conclusion, so that other events about the country, which promise to be numerous this year, will not conflict.

PAL MOORE PUTS IT ON SAMMY SMITH

New York, March 11.—Pal Moore of Philadelphia forgot his loyalty to his native town last night at the National Sporting Club, when he outpointed Young Sammy Smith, also from Philadelphia, in ten cyclonic rounds.

Smith could never get in the running. It was a case of Moore chopping, jabbing, swinging, slamming and all the time finding a good resting place for his wallop. In the fifth Moore pounded Smith so fast that the latter went to the floor. The last three rounds were whirlwinds and the final bell found Smith in bad shape and unable to make the slightest return to Moore's stingers.
